District 5 Special Election Update Results Forthcoming

On Saturday, May 2, 2026, the City of McAllen held a special election for City Commissioner, District 5. All early and election day votes have been counted. Additionally, all provisional ballots have been reviewed and cured, to the extent possible.

The deadline for the City to receive mail-in ballots post-marked on or before election day is 5 p.m. today, Monday, May 4. The deadline for voters to cure any deficiencies in mail-in ballots is Friday, May 8.

The City of McAllen appreciates the community's patience as it meets its obligations under the Texas Election Code. The unofficial election results, inclusive of all provisional ballots and cured mail-in ballots, will be published on Saturday, May 9. The City Commission will canvass the election at the City Commission meeting on Monday, May 11. Election results are final upon canvassing.

For more information, contact the City Secretary's Office at 956-681-1020.

About the City of McAllen

Founded in 1904 and incorporated in 1911, the City of McAllen has grown from a small agricultural community into one of the most vibrant and fastest-growing cities along the U.S.-Mexico border. Known as the "City of Palms," McAllen serves as a hub for international trade, retail, tourism, and culture in the Rio Grande Valley. Today, the city employs more than 2,600 dedicated public servants across 41 departments, delivering essential services to a community of more than 150,000 residents. McAllen city leaders remain committed to transparent governance, fiscal responsibility, and enhancing quality of life through innovation, infrastructure, and community engagement.
